If the stockholders of the Coney Island Jockey Club wish to learn why the attend-ance has been so slim at Sheepsheed Bay they have only to look up the records of racing for the past few days. The "aport of kings" might fitly to termed the "amuse-ment of millionaires," for a man would need very large and heavy bank-roll to play races at Sheopshead Bay as races are run there at present. Yesterday was certainly the most disas rous day bettors have known in years. Don When the Grand Jury concluded its labors Alonzo, at 2 to 1 on; Tammany, at 8 to 1 on; Banquet, at 2 to 1 on, and Major Domo, at 5

The record for the previous days of the Commissioner of Excise, to bring the said week is just as bad. Monday three favorities Joseph Koch into public scandai, hatred, in-jury and disgrace of his great hatred, malice vorite landed at odds on and on Wednesday were the only choices to win. This is truly a beautiful record, and as above mentioned it fully accounts for the slim crowds at the

that Hay ward had pulled Major Domo. To support this statement numerous stories were recounted of how the race was fixed for

Ex-Judge Bedford, the Acting District-Attorney, said regarding Rev. Mr. Dixon's case:

"The simple facts of the case are these:
Major Domo and Molero made the running.
It is said that "Father" Bill Daly was disgrunted because Johnny Lambley was not given the mount of the Major and that he gave the younger Lambley instructions to make the pace as hot as possible with Bolero, in order to kill Domo's chances if possible. This young Lambley did. He did more the interfered with the big horse whenever he got a chance.

looking immigrant girls of all nationalities, and he spoke to several of them, who were quite wring to go out to service, but more of them would marry Lynch.

At last he came to a pretty, blue-eyed Irish girl, who seemed to treat his offer seriously, and finally satir. "Well, I will marry you if you draw the $400 and give it to me now."

Lynch refused promptly.

Lynch refused promptly.

Then I don't want you," said the girl, she had evidently made an impression of the farmer, for he finally offered her $200 down to marry him, but then she told him she would not marry him, but then she told him she was to he she told him she was to he kneep the form and what promote the kneep the form and stuck there tighted the she clear to have the she colored to him and the kneep the form and to her had a state to he she had a language to he for a mailtion, and he she had a Rookmaker G. Walbaum, who is President of the Hudson County Jockey Club, was yesterday barred from the privilege of making any further those at the present sheepshead mee ing. So was Bookmaker Vendig, Walbaum and Vendig had a row in the ring on Thursday, and this was the reason of the Jockey Club's action. Mr. Walbaum threatens to resume rading at Guttenburg, to he made this declaration in the heat of passion. The Coney Island Jockey Club refused to give Mr. Walbaum a hearing, which, seeing that he was the aggrieved party, was manifestly unjust and unitar.

The race mare Marion C., who last year defeated Kingston, has been bred to Hanover.

Jockey Robert Seden, well-known to turf-men in the East and West, died yesterday of pneumonia.

Tammany's defeat yesterday was a sur-prise. He has probably been indulted since his last race and Garrison was a trifle too confident. On the other hand Charade was hard and it and is better than many imagine him to be. Fatron was beaten off. How many turnen will give $50,000 for him now? In both his races with Tammany he quit
